COMPETITION

1. APPLICATIONS

- Applicants must be born after 1 December 1991.
- Applications can be submitted between 26 February 2024, 00:01 CET and 10 March 2024, 23:59 CET. The applications close exactly on this deadline or at the moment the limit of 90 participants is reached.
- Candidates apply on the website of Muvac with following information and documents:
 - a curriculum vitae (max 1300 characters including spaces) for internal use
 - short bio in text form (600 characters including spaces in English) to share publicly
 - a copy of the participant's ID or passport, in pdf
 - a photograph, suitable for reproduction, with the name of the photographer in the file name, in jpeg
 - an overview of the repertoire the participant would perform during the first round, semi-final and final, with timing and in the correct order, as presented on the template below
 - the scores of the freely chosen repertoire of the semi-finale and final, with the name of the work and composer in the file name, in pdf
 - the video recordings of the first round
- MA Festival has the right to decline applicants who have not submitted the above-mentioned information and documents on time.
- An independent third party checks whether the submitted application and videos meet the Competition regulations. If not, the candidate will be disqualified. Shortly after the closure of the application, all candidates will be informed whether they are admitted or not to the first round.

1.1 Application fee

Registration is only valid when the non-refundable application fee (€ 150,00) is paid. The registration fee is paid through Muvac.

Bank costs are at the expense of the applicant.

1.2 General regulations

- All participants admitted to the semi-final are expected to be in Bruges on Sunday 4 August in the evening.
- MA Festival cannot be held liable for any law infringement committed by a participant regarding public use of illegal copies of scores.
- All participants agree to participate in all the rounds to which they are admitted, unless prevented from doing so by circumstances beyond their control.
- No pieces can be shared between the recitals or the competition rounds.
- The jury will be the same throughout the entire competition, except in case of force majeure.
- We will not provide a page-turner. If you are in need of a page-turner, you will have to provide someone yourself.

2. COMPETITION

The competition consists of three rounds. A first online round, a live semi-final in Bruges and a live final in Bruges.

2.1 FIRST ROUND

- The first round consists of a selection based on the videos submitted and will be streamed online for the audience on 10, 11 and 12 May 2024.
- The order of participation for the first round will be decided and communicated no later than 29 April 2024.

Repertoire

- Repertoire to be played on at least two separate, appropriate instruments.
- The programme should not be longer than 15 minutes.
- Pieces to play in the order of your choice:
 - Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach: choose one Fantasia: Wq.58/6 or 58/7 or 59/5 or 59/6 or 61/3 or 61/6 (1780s), for c. 5-7' (one video)
 - Friedrich Kalkbrenner: choose one larger (nrs. 8, 12, 17, 18, 22, 23) or two shorter Preludes (nrs. 6, 9, 11, 15, 16, 19, 20, 21) op. 88 (1827?), for c. 3-4' (one video)
 - add one or two short pieces or movements at your own choice, written before 1830, in a different style than the two compulsory composers, for max. 4' (one or two videos)

2.1.1 Video specifications

- The programme has to be divided in separate videos. This means you will have to make and deliver three or four videos.
- Name your videos as followed and upload them in Muvac:
 - order_lastname_firstname_composer_work: e.g.
 - 1_John_Doe_CPEBach_FantasiaWq58.6
 - 2_John_Doe_Kalkbrenner_Prelude6
 - Every video must be recorded in one take. Edited videos will not be accepted.
 - Recordings that have already been published as well as concert recordings are not admissible as competition entries.
 - The applicant may not share any recording of this first round before the proclamation of the results.
 - At all times, the full keyboard, hands and face (profile) should be visible from the same video angle (confer example below). Multi-camera video recordings are not allowed.
- Make sure your video meets the following export quality specifications:
 - Resolution: 1920 x 1080 (horizontal)
 - Framerate: 25 (progressive, not interlaced)
 - Audio: Stereo (AAC)
 - Video codec: H.264/H.265 at 8Mbps
 - Video container/extension: MP4
- You are free to decide which device you use to record your performance, as long as decent video- and sound quality is guaranteed.
- Make sure good audio quality is guaranteed as well. Make sure to avoid external disturbing sounds during your performance.
- Try to make your video background as clean as possible.

- Make sure the video is well lit, not overexposed or too dark. The use of natural lighting will do.
- Do not add any textual or graphical elements (logo's, names, etc...) to the video.

2.1.2. Voting procedure

- To adjudicate the first round, all members of the competition jury will receive a digital form with the names of the participants. In line with their evaluation of the participants' performances, each member of the competition jury will for each participant indicate whether they wish the participant to proceed to the semi-final round.
- Participants will be ranked according to the total score awarded by the competition jury.
- No more than 12 participants will proceed to the semi-final round.
- The list of participants for the semi-final will be published on 13 May 2024 at 13.00 CET.

2.2 SEMI-FINAL

- The semi-final is played live in Bruges and accessible to the audience.
- MA Festival can arrange a basic single room with breakfast in our festival accommodation for participants starting at the semi-finals.
